GUATAMALA RIOTS.

Over Five Hundred People Killed in Three Days--Barillas Declares Himself Dictator.

CITY OF MEXICO, Sept. 29.—A revolution has been precipitated in the republic of Guatamala. A gentleman who left the city of Guatamala on the morning of the 14th inst., and who reached this city on horseback from the Mexican port of Acapulco yesterday, brings information that an outbreak occurred in Guatamala City on the 13th inst., and was still in progress when he left. It appears that the people were celebrating the anniversary of their national holiday and President Barillas had personally appointed the orators of the day. To this the masses took exception, and when the orators took the rostrum it was a signal for a storm of stones which set them to flight, they being chased across the big plaza by a howling mob, shouting: "Down with the government!" "Down with despotism and tyranny!" "Die Barillas!" An exciting scene followed, and every known liberal or Barillas partisan was driven from the plaza, being soundly stoned at every step. The news of the riot spread rapidly, and soon Barillas threw a battalion of infantry into the large square for the purpose of dispersing the mob. They, with fixed bayonets, attempted to carry the plaza by assault. They were met with a shower of stones and bullets from revolvers. This unexpected action of the mob put them to igoominious flight, leaving many dead and wounded in the plaza. The uproar was something to be long remembered. Members of the mob shouted: "Let's storm the National palace, kill Barillas and restore a republican form of government. Guatamala should not be ruled by a dictator," and "plundering of the national treasury must cease." Barillas then ordered artillery into the plaza and infantry and two cannon to guard his residence. When the guns were turned on the mob there was a general dispersing of them, though they discharged their revolvers at the artillerymen. They left the plaza, but fought in the side streets; in fact they practically, during the night of the 13th, held full control of the city. The reports of revolution troubles were to be heard all night, and at the hour the gentleman giving this information left for San Jose d' Guatamala to embark for Acapulco, fighting was still in progress. It is his conception that this will cause a general revolution throughout the entire republic of Guatamala and engender war in all other Central American states. A strict censorship is maintained over all press dispatches, and the mails are also trifled with to prevent the leaking out of any information.

A special to the Anglo-American from Newton, on the line between Guatamala and Mexico, received in this city at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon and delivered to the telegraphic station by special courier, brings the information that Barillas is master of the situation, he having put down the revolt in the City of Guatamala after three days of hard fighting. The revolt was precipitated by Monnbar, a son of one of the candidates for the presidency, who is a strong partisan of Barillas, in attempting to make a political speech on independence day. A mob threw him and his friends from the platform in the main plaza, pelting them with stones until they found shelter in another neighboring house. From that time until the night of the 13th there was street fighting, sometimes the mob being in control of the city and at other times the army. The arrival of troops from adjoining districts eventually restored Barillas to power, and the whole city is now infested with soldiers. Martial law has been declared. It was expected when the courier left the City of Guatamala that Barillas would declare himself dictator, so as to prolong his term of office. Salvador is moving troops to the military district of Santa Ana, bordering on the southern frontier of Guatamala, and it is believed for the purpose of invading the latter country if the City of Guatamala revolt spreads to interior points. From another account it is learned that Colonel Jobon, by an order of Barillas, killed General Sanchez, and was immediately made, by Barillas, commander of artillery. It followed that a brother of General Sanchez, learning of his assassination, went to the place, which was surrounded by cannon, where Colonel Jobon was stationed, and shot and killed him. The Press has been reprimanded, and not only the editors but the proprietors are threatened; but, nevertheless, the newspaper articles continue to be very strong against the government. A private dispatch to a prominent merchant in this city, who has business relations in the city of Guatamala, shown to your correspondent last night from Newton, says that fully 500 lives were sacrificed in the three days of fighting, and that President Barillas is still shooting down the participants in the revolt as if they were animals. The dispatch also conveys the information that Barillas has declared himself dictator. General Sanchez was shot and killed by Jobon. His brother, who shot and killed Jobon, has been executed, while the city is under martial law. A reign of terror prevails, the inhabitants being afraid to leave their houses. A revolt has taken place at Quietgaltenango in which the revolutionary leader is reported to be supported by over 1,000 men. The palace and residence of President Barillas are guarded. Barillas does not stir abroad unless guarded by a large force of cavalry.

SAYS THE END IS NEAR

And Because of His Prophesy Rev. Dr. Jenkes is Asked to Resign His Ministry.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Sept. 29.—A big sensation in church circles has been created here by the announcement that Dr. Joseph Jenkes, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal church, has filed his resignation with the vestry. All authentic sources of information are very reticent as to the causes, the only explanation vouchsafed being that other fields of church work are demanding all of Dr. Jenkes' services. Of recent years Dr. Jenkes has been a close student of history as applied to revelation. Recently he professed to have made discoveries which, applied to the prophecies, convince him beyond a doubt that the end of the world is near and that it will certainly come within the next ten years.

There is a very considerable element of the church, however, who strenously objected to this summary winding up of all things earthly, and this objection, it is stated upon excellant authority, culminated in an expressed wish that Dr. Jenkes seek another field of labor.

CORNERED THE THIEVES.

The Perpetrators of Numerous Store Robberies Located.

KEOKUK, Iowa, Sept. 29.—For some time past many robberies have been committed in and around the town of Bowen. The latest robbery was of the store of S. V. Scott, at Denver, Ill., on the night of September 24. On Saturday Scott got out a search warrant for the houses of Frank Jarvis and J. Thresher, and, together with Constable Saunders, started for Bowen, the home of the suspected parties. When they reached there Jarvis and a brother, fourteen years of age, tried to make their escape through a rear window with a sack of stolen goods, but were interrupted by Saunders, who commanded them to halt. They responded by shooting at him five or six times, one shot taking effect in the leg. The pair then escaped to the woods. This treat soon became too hot for them, and under the cover of darkness, the couple managed to get into a forty acre corn field, where they are now surrounded by the sheriff and fifty armed men. A number of shots were exchanged, but so far nothing serious has resulted. The sheriff is determined to wait it out and effect a capture when the Jarvis boys get hungry, but as the latter are determined and declared they will not be taken alive, it is only a matter of time until a battle ensues. Thresher has given himself up. Both houses were searched and many stolen goods recovered.

THREATENING CHINESE.

They Give Notice of a Renewal of Hostilities Against Missionaries.

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—The latest advices from China state that unless the missionaries withdraw from certain localities, there will probably be a renewal of the riots. The feeling of the people against the missionaries is very bitter, the general opinion being that, in some way, they maltreat the babies they buy from the poor. The missionaries purchase these children for a small sum, and bring them up as christians. The children are undoubtedly well taken care of, but the populace only know that they are in foreign hands, and attack any one they consider responsible for the fact.

ONLY HALF WAY.

Reciprocity With Mexico Will Admit Free Only Sugar, Hides and Coffee.

CITY OF MEXICO, Sept. 29.—The scope of negotiations intrusted to J. E. Limantour as Mexican commissioner, to treat with United States Minister Ryan on reciprocity is strictly limited to the provision of the American tariff law in this section. The question to be discussed is simply what compensation can Mexico give the United States for the free admission of her sugar, hides and coffee. The question of admission of lead ores free of duty is therefore shut out. There is no idea of negotiating a full and complete reciprocity, at least at the present moment.

Garcia's Band Routed and Dispersed.

BROWNSVILLE, Texas, Sept. 29.—Nicolas Hernadez, one of Garcia's lieutenants, was captured Sunday night by a United States marshal and is in the Cameron county jail. A report reached here that Garcia's forces were routed near Camargo, Mexico, and that his followers are making for this side. It is also said that Garcia is already on the Texas border at a place called Realitos.

DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.

Massachusetts Preparing the Winning Ticket--Governor Russell's Administration Praised.

WORCESTER, Mass., Sept. 29.—The democratic state convention met at 11 o'clock a. m., in Mechanics hall. Hon. Patrick A. Collins was chosen chairman. The platform adopted reaffirms allegiance to the principles of the national democratic party, and praises Governor Russell's administration. After calling for various reforms in state legislation, the platform declares as follows:

"The McKinley tariff bill, against which the democratic party of Massachusetts protested at its last convention, was repudiated at the polls by one of the most emphatic votes ever cast by a free people. We renew our demand for the repeal of all of its provisions which increases rates of duty, and for the enactment of a genuine measure of tariff reform. We believe that all taxes, upon food, fuel, fibres and ores and also upon the crude or partly manufactured materials necessary in the processes of our domestic industries, should be repealed, thus affording genuine protection alike to the workingmen and the manufacturers of our common wealth. Five of the republican congressmen from this state whom we condemned last year for their surrender of business interests of New England in order to meet the exigencies of party politics, have been replaced by the people with democratic members who can be trusted to uphold the rights and to guard the interests of their constituents.

We believe that public office is a public trust, and that appointments should be made for fitness, capacity and integrity, in the spirit of civil service reform. The republican administration has shown the hypocrosy of its pretentions in favor of this reform by destroying the efficiency of the census bureau for the sake of furnishing political spoils, by neglecting to bring prosecution for the punishment of violations of the civil service law, by ignoring the recommendations of the civil service commission for the dismissal of officials who have openly defied the law, by reviving the active participation of office holders in partisan politics and the assessment of government employes for partisan purposes.

We believe in honest money, the gold and silver coinage of the constitution, and in a currency convertible into such coinage without loss. This declaration expressed the uniform historic policy of the national democratic party contained in its platforms of 1884 and 1888, wounreservedly reaffirm We believe all dollars coined by the United States should be of equal intrinsic value, and that all paper currency issued by the government should be redeemable in either gold or silver coin at the option of the holder and not at the discretion of the secretary of the treasury. We declare to Governor Russel our opposition to any legislation "which, in its results, tends to debase our currency, unsettle the credit, impair values and give to labor a depreciated money less than its just dues." While we believe in the use of both gold and silver as money, and in the full remonitization of the latter metal by international agreement we are equally opposed to the free and unlimited coinage of silver by our government, independent of the action of other nations, and to the dangerous silver legislation enacted at the last session of congress. The republican party in its national platform of 1888 bid for and received the support of the silver interests by denouncing the democratic administration as unfriendly to silver. In accordance with the bargain then made the party has since passed an act increasing the monthly purchasers of silver by the treasury from about 2,000,000 ounces to 4,500,000 ounces. This measure dictated by the advocates of inflation and by the silver mine owners who demand a government bounty on their product was an abandonment of the cause of honest money and could not have become a law without the votes of the republican members of congress from Massachusetts. This act increasing two and a half times the coinage of eighty cents worth of silver into a dollar compelling the treasury to become the purchaser every day of seven tons of bullion, or more than the whole American product, adding upwards of $54,000,000 a year to the volume of currency based upon silver, is a menance to the maintenance of a sound and stable currency and threatens, if not repealed, to damage values impair the obligation of contracts and bring the currency of the country to a purely silver basis. We therefore denounce the claim of republican leaders of this state that they are the friends of a sound currency as false and hypocritical, and charge them with the sole and direct responsibility for the present dangerous condition of the currency. With firm reliance upon the justice of its principles its record and the merits of the candidate the democratic party appeals to the suffrages of the voters.

Hon. John E. Russell nominated Hon. Wm. E. Russell for governor in a speech that was enthusiastically received. The nomination was seconded and made unanimous by acclamation.

Gen. John W. Corcoran, of Clinton, was unanimously nominated for lieutenant-governor.

DEMONIAC PRANKS.

Electricity Ruled With a High Hand Last Night.

The freaks indulged in by the lightning last evening were of a most alarming character. The atmosphere was so heavily charged with electricity that the current was attracted to wires and steel in many parts of the city. At the corner of Calhoun and Columbia street wires were struck by lightning and the insulations destroyed. The wires were alive with electricity, causing a good deal of consternation in the neighborhood and necessitating hasty action to shut off the current. The lights at the Wayne hotel, Dreier's drug store and other places were extinguished. Repairs were made as quickly as possible. Roy Hartzler, the Nickel Plate dispatcher, had been out for an early evening spin on his bicycle, when the the rain overtook him. He hurried back to his home and took the wheel into the hall-way, and sat down in the sitting room near by to read. A moment later he experienced one of the most thrilling sensations of his life. A flash of light, followed by a severe shock, blinded and stunned him. He recovered in an instant and noticed that his bicycle in the hall-way was clothed in vivid fire, the electrical current having been attracted by the steel spokes. The lightning playfully danced about the machine a few seconds and disappeared.

Some damage from the storm is reported in different localities in and about the city, but no injury has been heard of.

STILL ALARM.

A Fine Show That Packed the Temple--Performance Tonight.

Despite the inclement weather a large audience filled the Temple last evening at the performance of the "Still Alarm." The attraction has been seen to pleasing advantage in this city and instead of deteriorting in its merits the play has, if anything, been improved. It is delightfully thrilling in its situations, maintaining from first to last its tone, and it gives the spectator that idea of realism that makes the show so popular in this city. Without commenting on the characters, who could only receive praiseworthy mention from a critic whose economns and less cheerful words are given out with a hand of justice, it might be well to say that the horses, Zend and Arcata, are superb, and they lend much realism to the fire engine scene. The horses are handsome and go through their parts with great animation. They were trained for the work in a New York fire department. The "Still Alarm" will be seen for the last time tonight and judging from the enthusiasm of the audience last night, the Temple will again be packed tonight to witness the popular "Still Alarm."

WILL COME OUT AHEAD.

The Stockholders of the Races Will Make Twenty Per Cent. Profit

A meeting of the stockholders of the Fort Wayne Driving association will be held in a few days when a report of the receipts and expenditures of the races will be submitted by the secretary. A prominent stockholder informed a SENTINEL reporter today that there would be a profit above all expenses of from fifteen to twenty per cent. Another stockholder remarked that the association would clear about $3,000. It has been demonstrated that good races will pay. Expressions are frequently heard on the street that are commendatory of the public spiritedness of the gentlemen who risked their money without having assurance that they would ever realize a profit from the investment. Some predicted that the races would be a failure, but on the contrary the meeting was one of the most successful ever held in Indiana.

MURDER WILL OUT.

Horrible Confession of a Dying Man --Killed and Robbed Three Men for Their Money.

SHAMOKIN, Pa., Sept. 29.—John Girrece was stricken with typhoid fever a month ago and died last night. Just before his death he made a confession in which he said that seven years ago, while working at Sunbury, he and a man named Charles Ward murdered Oscar Olsck, who worked on a railroad with them, and robbed him of his savings. The body was buried under an old tool house. When asked the next day about Oscar's absence they said he left for his home in Poland. Richard, a brother of Oscar, suspecting foul play, instituted a searching investigation and that, fearful of being discovered, the assassins lured him into the country and killed him. The body was buried in a swamp and the murderers reported the next day that Richard had gone to join his brother in Poland. Soon after the pair came to Shamokin and worked in the mines. A peddler stopped at their home one night for shelter and in an ungarded moment mentioned that he had $150. He was shot dead and robbed and the body thrown down an air hold.

BUYING AMERICAN PRODUCTS.

French Agents Purchase Immense Supplies of Flour and Pork.

CHICAGO, Sept. 29.—It was learned yesterday that for the last three weeks agents for the French government have been quietly picking up an enormous amount of grain and meats. In meats they have been buying in Virginia, Southern Ohio, St. Louis, and points along the border of the smoked hog products, as the salted products of Chicago are but little known abroad. But it is for flour and wheat that they have given their largest orders, amounting to 2,000,000 barrels of flour and 25,000,000 bushels of grain. An inquiry as to why the French government should be secretly such a buyer brought out this explanation: The government is in a delicate position in regard to both grain and meat in France. Prices are high, and the demand for a removal of the tariff is pressing; yet the government does not like to directly let down the bars. The threatening aspect of European affairs gives it a good excuse to provision itself strongly in advance—preparing for war in time of peace—and it knows, as a matter of fact, that those who buy later must pay much higher prices for American products.

NIAGARA SURPASSED.

An Exploring Party Report Finding a Water Fall 316 Feet High.

ST. JOHNS, N. F., Sept. 29.—Mr. Bryant, of Philadelphia, and Professor Kenealon, of Washington, have arrived here from an exploration of Grand Falls, Labrador, in which they have been completely successful. Mr. Bryant gives a glowing account of the magnificence of the falls. A half mile above the falls the river is 400 yards wide. Three rapids, similar to those in Niagara, are in the river. The banks narrow at the falls to a width of 150 to 200 feet. The last rapids is 188 feet in length. The water here rises into great cones, then plunges down from a granite ledge into a great basin. On the southern side of the river, below the falls, reddish cliffs rise 800 feet. Mist rises in an immense column over the falls, showing rain bows. The deafening roar is heard twenty-five miles off. The party collected 200 specimens of plants and made valuable scientific records. Mr. Bryant made meteorological observations all through the trip. Professor Kenealon made a compass survey of the river all the way down, sketching its topography.

THE LAST NIGHT.

The Closing of the St. Patrick's Fair at Library Hall Tonight.

The fair for the benefit of the St. Patrick's Catholic church, which has been in progress at Library hall for nearly two weeks, closes tonight and the program offered is an interesting one. The Mandolin orchestra, which has been in attendance throughout, will furnish magnificent music and everything will be done to make the last night of the fair one of the best.

Among the interesting features tonight will be the contest for the secretary between Father John R. Quinlan and Father William Quinlan. Both of these brilliant young priests are popular favorites and the contest between their friends for the secretary will be animated and interesting. An auction sale of the goods at the fair will also occur tonight and some rare bargains will be offered.

The fair has been a success financially and Father Delaney is thankful for the patronage that has been given his new church.

WANTS $1,000 DAMAGES!

Patrick Welch Sues for Injuries Inflicted on Him--The Cases in the Various Courts.

W. P. Breen, as attorney for Patrick Welch, has commenced an action in the superior court against Charles Dickmeier, Henry Linnemeier and Henry Doehrman, asking that the defendants be made to pay him $1,000 damages for an assault committed on him on the 13th day of the month. He alleges that they assaulted him with a club and threw bricks at him, inflicting injuries that confined him to his bed for some time and caused him to expend $50 for medical services. The criminal cases against these parties have been frequently referred to in these columns. The difficulty took place at a "belling" in the eastern part of the city.

Last night, between 9 and 10 o'clock, at the corner of Douglas avenue and Calhoun street, Al Pickering, a railroad brakeman who gave Defiance, Ohio, as his home, was assaulted by two footpads, who, after a scuffle, relieved him of his gold watch and chain and $2 in money. The fellows then made their escape. Pickering was intoxicated, and had but a short time before emerged from a Calhoun street saloon, where he had been drinking pretty freely. His assailants are supposed to be fellows who were loungers in the saloon, and noticed that he had money on his person. The brakeman reported his encounter at police headquarters, and officers were ordered to search for the highwaymen, but the guilty parties have thus far escaped arrest.

The criminal row in police court this morning presented a solid and unbroken array of drunks. There were four of them. Attorney J. R. Bittinger, in the absence of E. V. Emerick, acted as prosecutor. It looked natural and sort of old-timed to see Mr. Bittinger there, as for several years he served in that capacity. The first prisoner to be called was Wm. Coughlin. "You are charged," said Mr. Bittinger, "with being found in a public place in a state of intoxication. What have you to say?" "In one sense," replied Coughlin, "I am guilty, and in another I am not. I took several glasses of beer." Officer Bourgman was called and testified as to the man's drunkenness, and the mayor gave him $10 50. Richard Shreck and Jack Hamilton then took seats in front of the mayor's desk. They pleaded guilty to the charge of drunkenness and were fined $10.50 each. Officer Gushing made the arrests. The last man arraigned was Frank Stiegis, whose face in police court has been a familiar one during the last few months. In answer to Prosecutor Bittinger's question, he quickly pleaded guilty, hoping to escape with a light sentence, but the mayor turned to Marshal Franke and said: "How often has this man been here on charges of this kind?" "Five times that I can recall at present," said the marshal. "Well, then, I'll give him $5 and costs." This made his fine and costs $14 50. Stiegis was arrested by Officer Daseler.

The case of the State against Henry C. Archer for provoke and trespass, was commenced in Justice France's court at 2 o'clock this afternoon. Jacob Markel rented his farm in Washington township to Archer for one year, and before the commencement of the lease the latter took possession of it. This led to a personal difficulty between the two; and hence the suit.

Constable Schlandroff drove out to Maysville this morning and arrested Samuel Blanbaugh on the charge of committing a nuisance by hauling slops through the streets of the city and allowing his wagon to stand in front of residences. He was taken before Justice Wilkinson who imposed a fine and costs of $25 against the defendant, which he paid.

Judge O'Rourke, in the circuit court this morning granted Lydia Rogers a divorce from her husband, Alexander Rogers, on the grounds of cruel treatment and other charges. The defendant had filed counter charges, and Attorney E. V. Emerick for the plaintiff, and A. H. Bittinger, for the defendant, drew out some racy testimony.

Justice Daniel Ryan is rapidly recovering from his recent illness. This morning, at his home, he heard the case of Gibson against Baker, for the possession of premises. E. V. Emerick and J. R. Bittinger were the opposing lawyers.

In the circuit court Henry Wolff, through his attorney, A. H. Bittinger, sues for a divorce from his wife, Lena Wolff, alleging cruel and inhuman treatment as the cause.

The case of Kennedy against Brockerman in on trial before Judge Dawson and a jury in the superior court. The action is to replevin a horse and rescind a contract. Henry Colerick represents the plaintiff and Leonard Bros. the defendant.

The jury in the circuit court in the case of Albert Dove, charged with provoking Emma Hoadly, disagreed.

Amory S. France was allowed a claim of $120 against the estate of Delia France, by Judge O'Rourke.

Justice Ryan fined Henry Stehr $1 and costs for provoking John Thieme.

Rt. Rev. H. Shop Dwenger was able to take a ride in his carriage today.

CREATING IN HORSE BLANKETS

Nearly every pattern of 5/A Horse Blanket is imitated in color and style. In most cases the imitation looks just as good as the genuine, but it hasn't the warp threads, and so lacks strength, and while it sells for only a little less than the genuine it isn't worth one-half as much. The fact that 5/A Horse Blankets are copied is strong evidence that they are THE STANDARD, and every buyer should see that the 5/A trade mark is sewed on the inside of the Blanket.

METHODIST circles in Lafayette are gossiping over a matter which will be laid before the Northwest conference, during its meeting the present week at South Bend. The late John Daugherty bequeathed land in Benton county to the Freedmen's Aid society of the M. E. church. The estimated value was $9,000. Rev. W. H. Hickman, formerly presiding elder of the Lafayette district, is president of Atlanta university, a Freedmen's institution. Some time after Daugherty's death it is alleged that he visited Lafayette and made close inquiry concerning the possible value of the land, and soon after he turned up as the owner of the tract, having purchased it from the Freedmen's board. It is alleged that Mr. Hickman authorized Rev. W. E. McKenzie, of Boswell, to say that it brought about $9,000, but that in fact he only paid $5,000.

THE new church of the Grace Lutheran congregation was dedicated Sunday with appropriate and interesting services. The morning sermon was delivered by Professor Stellhouse, of Columbus, Ohio. The Rev. Gerber preached in the afternoon. Rev. Dannecker, of the St. John's Lutheran church, of which the new sacred edifice is a branch, officiated as master of ceremonies.

O. G. CONS, of Elkhart, is so well pleased with the result of the profit-sharing with employes, which he put into operation in his instrument factory some months ago, that he has adopted the same system with reference to the Truth publishing house, and hereafter the Elkhart Truth and other publications will be controlled by a board of managers, including Robert M. Stewart, Conrad B. Richter, James K. Huff, Valentine Kling and Frank G. Stahr, foremen of the various departments.

They will ask the American Federation of Labor, at its next meeting, to take up their cause and demand for them the short-hour work day.

HEZEKIAH DAVIS, one of the oldest and wealthiest citizens of LaGrange, and founder of the enterprising town of Shipshewana, is dead after a protracted illness. Mr. Davis for many years was an active politician and a very prominent member of the republican party, and he probably made and unmade more local republican politicians than any other man in the state. He was largely instrumental in securing the construction of the Canada and Goshen railway, which traverses his large farm. Upon his farm he located the town mentioned above, which has grown to 1,000 population in two years. Mr. Davis's wealth is estimated at $600,000. A large family survive him.

STATE NEWS.

Mrs. L. B. Davis, of Wabash, invalided for twelve years, and who did not leave her bed for four years, is dead.

While John Risch was walking along the street of Wabash in early evening, he was garroted and robbed of $17 50.

Miss Mollie Miller, of Anderson, wife No. 2 of Charles Wesley, the alleged Cincinnati bigamist, is suing to set aside her marriage.

Abram Anderson, aged eighty three, of Greensburg, is dead. He was the last of a colony of Kentuckians who settled in that county at an early day.

James Kelley, of Anderson, who forfeited his bond and fled upon discovering that a jury had convicted him of criminal assault, with five years' imprisonment, has been captured.

The party who entered the American express office at Vincennes and made a bluff robbery, has been arrested. He is identified as Arthur Young, mentally unsound. For this reason the express company will not prosecute.

Charles H. Ritter, the defaulting cashier of the First National bank, of Evansville, was surrendered by his bondsmen upon an intimation from Washington that the president would not interfere in his sentence, which will be imposed on October 8. Ritter thereupon collapsed and became so dangerously prostrated that the bondsmen relented and he was returned to his home.

Louis Griggs, of New Albany, has been adjudged guilty of manslaughter, with seven years' imprisonment, growing out of the killing of William Carroll. They were boon companions and quarrelled, and in the melee Griggs stabbed Carroll to the heart. The stricken man pursued Griggs across the street, and, plucking the knife from his own heart, he stabbed Griggs in the abdomen, inflicting injuries from which he did not recover for months.

Fire at Sullivan destroyed the Evansville and Terre Haute freight depot, four warehouses and the Shelburn Coal company's office. Depot loss, $2,000; P. R. Jenkins, two warehouses, $4,500; Parker & Maxwell's Farmers' Alliance store, $1,500, G. W. Leach, warehouse, $2,600; Shelburn Coal company, $1,000. W. H. Crowder lost 250 tons of hay and Crowder & Cunningham 1,500 bushels of wheat. Four loaded freight cars were also burned.

While W. E. Hamilton, a compositor in the employe of the Evansville Courier, was working at his case, Fred Conners, a printer working in another office, entered and addressed him in the foulest language, at the same time using his revolver, the first shot entering Hamilton's shoulder. Hamilton threw his composing stick, full of type, in Conner's face, temporarily blinding him, so that his second shot flew wild. Then the men grappled, other printers aided in disarming Conners, and the melee ended. The trouble originated in the police court, where Hamilton testified that he had seen Conners whip his wife. Hamilton was badly wounded. Conners is under arrest for attempted murder.

A Little Girl's Experience in a Lighthouse.

Mr. and Mrs. Loren Trescott are keepers of the government light-house, at Sand Beach, Mich., and are blessed with a daughter four years old. Last April she was taken down with measles, followed with a dreadful cough and turning into fever. Doctors at home and at Detroit treated her, but in vain, she grew worse rapidly, until she was a mere "handful of bones." Then she tried Dr. King's New Discovery and after the use of two and a half bottles, was completely cured. They say Dr. King's New Discovery is worth its weight in gold, yet you may get a trial bottle free at Dreier & Bro's.

COL. H. S. OLCOTT.

The Theosophist is Now in the United States.

Col. Henry S. Olcott is an American who has lived abroad for many years. He is president of the Theosophical society and is in a very scornful mood regarding the excitement over theosophy coming from Mrs. Besant's conversion in England to the esoteric doctrine. Col Olcott is of the opinion that the English do not understand theosophy, and his only reason for delivering an address there was to vindicate the memory of his late friend, Mme. Blavatsky, who was a performer of miracles. Col. Olcott will spend but a short time in this country. He has been many years in India, whither he will proceed via Yokohama. Theosophy is not exactly understood in this country, but regarding it Colonel Olcott spoke before the Theosophical society in Bombay, India, and said: "We aim to revive the study of the Veda and an inquiry into the alleged latent powers of the human soul stated to exist by many thousands of experimentalists in ancient times and our own days. We call upon every man of you and every lover of India to rally around us. Choose any man here of either of the old races represented and show us that he is the right man to lead in either branch of the reformatory movement and I will most gladly enlist as a common soldier under him. Come let us labor together like brothers for the welfare of our motherland—India."

Colonel Olcott thus looks upon India as his mother country instead of America. He is the author of a work entitled, "Theosophy, Religion and Occult Science." He has delivered several hundred lectures in India and Ceylon, and wishes it to be understood that the Theosophical society has no use for nihilists, dynamiters or communists. Anything that sounds mysterious or eastern is agreeable to him. He is now delivering lectures on Theosophy in the United States.

Desires to Bear Testimony.

Henry Thorne, traveling secretary of the Y. M. C. A., writes from Exeter Hall, Strand, London, February 2nd, 1888:

"I desire to bear my testimony to the value of Allcock's Porous Plasters. I have used them for pains in the back and side arising from rheumatic and other causes, never without deriving benefit from their application. They are easily applied and very comforting. Those engaged as I am in public work which involves exposure to sudden changes of temperature, will do well to keep a supply of Allcock's Porous Plasters in their portmanteaus."

HURLED TO DEATH.

How easy to Drift Toward Death

A man in a boat above the Falls in smooth water, unconscious of danger, allowed himself to drift. The current, at first slight, increased until his rapid whirling and roar of the cataract brought to his senses full realization of his awful peril—too late.

So we often neglect a little weakness, nervousness, tired feeling, sleepless nights, from which we awake tired and unrefreshed, weary, languid feeling, headache, confusion of mind, dullness, loss of memory, strange sensations which mean locomotor ataxia.

Cold feet and limbs, numbness, trembling, prickling sensation, extreme weariness of limbs—mean paralysis. We often disregard the weakness and languor of debility and malaria, the disorder of stomach, liver or kidneys until fatal disease fastens upon us.

If you have these feelings, the awful cataract is ahead, and you must save yourself before it is too late. Use Dr. Greene's Nervura, the great nerve and brain invigorator, the best of all medicines, and a cure is sure.

For the benefit of the afflicted I deem it my duty to say that I was suffering from Nervous prostration; was so weak and prostrated I could not attend to my household duties; closed my house and gave up my home, as I was so restless I could not remain in one place. I could not sleep for weeks at a time, and insanity seemed sure to result. My case baffled the skill of several eminent physicians. At last, in despair, I resorted to Dr. Greene's Nervura, with wonderful effect. It produced good sleep, restored my appetite and strength, until I feel like a new person. I have recommended Dr. Greene's Nervura to many of my friends, who have also derived great benefit.

BREAD UPON THE WATERS.

"I don't believe a good action ever goes unrewarded," said an old railroad man the other day to the writer.

"Out with it then!"

"Out with what?"

"Why, your little honest confession, of course."

"Well, about twenty years ago, I was shoveling blank diamonds to boil the water in a locomotive on the Wabash railway between Lafayette, Ind., and Danville, Ill. Near Attica, Ind., there was an overhead wagon bridge across the track that had killed not less than five brakemen in four years; and one dark stormy night, in coming down the hill, I happened to remember that we had a green brakeman behind who was unacquainted with the road. I spoke to the engineer about it, but he said, 'Oh let him go, he's all right;' but I didn't feel like letting a fellow mortal take any such chances, and started back over the train crawling from car to car in the Egyptian darkness, and came near being blowed off several times, as it was blowing great guns; and old 53 was fanning that train fifty miles per hour down the summit. Back twelve cars from the engine I found 'Brakesy,' who was a tall, handsome young man as you could find in a thousand, and he was twisting up the slack of those brake chains with neatness and dispatch, while the wheels made a regular torch-light procession along the rail. He was badly scared when he first discovered me by the light of his old glim, crawling along the running board with my face as black as the see of spades from the dusty diamonds.

"'Sit down! Sit down!' I cried so loud that I almost imagined the whistle was sounding for Attica, and down he sat so hard and quick that he bit his tongue, and the next moment we flew under the bridge, while his lamp seemed to burn brighter as it disclosed those heavy timbers over head, that had killed so many poor brakemen. He came near fainting when he clasped my hand and we sat for several moments on the wet deck of the car and neither of us spoke a single word, but we were as white around the gills as the ghost of Hamlet's father.

* * * * * * *

"Six years afterwards I was in Fort Wayne, Ind., at the Wabash depot one morning, the most disconsolate man on God's green earth. I had been hurt on the road several years before, was unable to work and was trying to get back home to old Lafayette, Ind., as I thought, to die. I was hungry and tired and didn't have a cent in the world; and to see people step up to the lunch counter and call for hot coffee that was a smelling to heaven was enough to set a poor, flat-broke invalid crazy. I had begun to think that all my friends had been conveniently translated bodily from earth to heaven, when a tall, handsome conductor, with a silver lamp and gold-banded cap approached me and inquired:

"'Didn't you fire an engine about six years ago on the western division of the Wabash?'

"'Yes,' I replied, 'and it was a sorry day that I ever went to railroading.'

"'Do you recognize me?'

"'No, sir,' and yet I thought his face began to assume the angelic.

"'Well, I will refresh your memory. Do you recollect of risking your life one dark, stormy night in crawling over a freight train to warn a green brakeman about a dangerous overhead bridge below Attica?'

"'You bet I do! But you are not Billy, the brakeman?'

"'No, sir! No more Billy in mine; its Will! Sweet Will, the conductor on through passenger;' and he broke out into a musical laugh that fairly rattled the dishes on the lunch counter.

The tears came to my eyes in spite of me, for I was weak, weary and heart sick. He noticed them and clasping my hand said in the sweetest words that ever fell on mortal ears:

"'Come, come! Shut her off and oil the valves,' and he led me to a stool at the lunch counter, and said:

"'Now you sit there and fill up—let a few biscuits hit the chair and you will be all right again.'

He stepped into the dispatcher's office to get his orders while I poured coffee that would discount the nectar of the gods. He appeared in about ten minutes and said:

"'All aboard for Lafayette'—took me by the arm and led me to a coach and then stepped back to the platform and waved his message at the engineer, I curled up in the seat when the train started, to hide the tears that kept welling up in my eyes, and for the first time in twenty long years I could have cried like a baby. I believe in special providence since that terrible night, and the morning I was heart-broken—and Bill, the sweetest Will on earth—is still pulling a ball cord in the varnished cars on the old Wabash.—Harry Burton in the Argentine Republics.

A Dream of Happiness

May be followed by a morning of "La Grippe." Easily, and why? Because the displacement of covering in bed, a neglected draught from a partly closed window, an open transom connected with a windy entry in a hotel, may convey to your nostrils and lungs the death-dealing beast. Terrible and swift are the inroads made by this new destroyer. The medicated alcoholic principle in Hostetter's Stomach Bitters will check the dire complaint. A persistence in the preventive of its further development will absolutely checkmate the dangerous malady. Unmedicated alcoholic stimulants are of little or no value. The best medicine is the Bitters. No less efficacious is it in cases of malaria, biliousness, constipation, rheumatism, dyspepsia and kidney trouble. The weak are usually those upon whom disease fastens first. Invigorate with the Bitters.

"I was pressed for time," remarked the man whose watch was stolen in a crowd.

Will Discard the Helmet.

BERLIN, Sept. 23.—As a result of the emperor's observation of the autumnal experiment with the new smokeless powder, it is said that the government will act favorably and speedily on the part of the commissioners which some time since recommended the abolition from the army of the steel spikes, brass ornaments and the conspicuous helmet. The head peice thus discarded will be replaced by a cloth cap of a design not yet decided upon.

What Does It Mean?

"100 Doses One Dollar" means simply that Hood's Sarsaparilla is the most economical medicine to buy, because it gives more for the money than any other preparation. Each bottle contains 100 doses, and will average to last a month, while other preparations, taken according to directions, are gone in a week. Therefore, be sure to get Hood's Sarsaparilla, the best blood purifier.

Pete and Joe Parent, Andrew Hamm, John Hobbs, Misses Clara Douglas, Annie Parent, Annie Hamm and Louise Schele to remind him of the occasion. THE C.O.D.

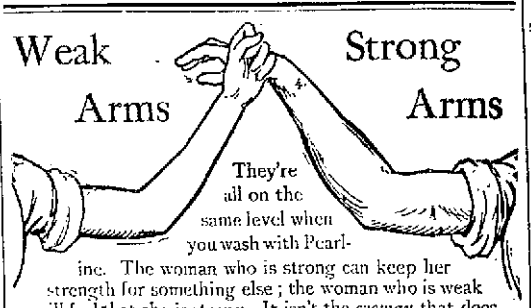
73 to 77 Calhoun Street.



They're all on the same level when you wash with Pearline. The woman who is strong can keep her strength for something else; the woman who is weak will feel that she is strong. It isn't the woman that does the work—it's PEARLINE.

So it is with the clothes. They needn't be strong. The finest things fare as well as the coarsest. They all last longer, for they're saved the rubbing that wears them out. Work was never so easy—never so well done. And safe, too. Nothing that is washable was ever hurt by Pearline. If it were otherwise—do you think we would continue to sell enough Pearline for it to supply every family in the land with several packages.

Beware Peddlers and some unscrupulous grocers will tell you, "this is as good as" or "the same as Pearline." IT'S FALSE—Pearline is never peddled, and if your grocer sends you something in place of Pearline, do the honest thing—send it back. 190 JAMES PYLE, New York.
